Art in Context (3-Part Series): Corsets and Top Hats: History, Fashion, and Art in France

In this special short series, we will look at how fashion has historically played a cultural role indicating both status and rank. From the emergence of Marie Antoinette as a fashion icon in the 18th century to the predominance of bourgeois fashion with its steel hooped skirts, corsets, and top hats during the Second Empire of France, the notion of French “chic” has a rich history that continues to resonate into the present day.

Individual lectures: Member or with paid museum admission $9 | General $12

Saturday | May 4
Revelation of the Mysteries of Osiris, Lord of Abydos, the Secret Rituals of Reviving a Murdered God

Presented by Bryan Kraemer, Research Egyptologist, Robert and Frances Fullerton Museum of Art, California State University, San Bernardino

How was Osiris’s body “reclaimed” from the Nile? How was his severed head reattached and resuscitated? Why did priests stimulate Osiris postmortem with gustatory and sexual enticement? Join us on a fascinating journey through ancient Egyptian culture and religion, discovering long forgotten secrets and scandals.

Sponsored by Kenneth and Cathy Ragland.

Ticketed Event: Free for Bowers and ARCE Members | General $12

Saturday | June 8
Hellenistic Honorific Statuary in Ptolemaic Egypt

Presented by Dr. Sara E. Cole, Assistant Curator, Antiquities Department, J. Paul Getty Museum

Throughout the Hellenistic world, elite identity was closely tied to benefaction toward one’s community. This talk will explore the use of Hellenistic honorific statuary in Ptolemaic Egypt, where elites took part in a broader Hellenistic trend and adapted it to Egyptian contexts in order to appeal to multiple audiences.

Sponsored by Kara Cooney.

KUSC Kids Discovery Day Festival

Join us for the Orange County debut of the wildly popular KUSC Kids Discovery Day at the Bowers Museum! This colorful, family-friendly music festival includes live concert performances by artists from the Philharmonic Society, Lyric Opera of Orange County, Pacific Symphony, Orange County High School for the Arts, and more! Other highlights of the day include the Instrument Petting Zoo, arts and crafts, and a live KUSC radio broadcast from 9 AM – 1 PM. Meet KUSC hosts Brian Lauritzen, Jennifer Miller, and John Van Driel!

Ticketed Event: Free festival. General admission to the Bowers Museum is free on Festival Sundays for Members and Santa Ana residents. Kids under 18 are free and can bring their adults along for a discounted $10 admission to the museum.
"Books at Bowers" is a Bowers Docent Guild sponsored book club that pairs a topical book with the museum’s newest exhibitions. An optional docent-led tour will follow the discussion. All book selections are available for purchase in the Gallery Store.

The next book selection is The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane by Lisa See, which will be paired with the exhibition Ancient Arts of China: A 5,000 Year Legacy.

In The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane, Lisa See weaves stories from both East and West to tell the tale of a family torn apart and shaped by globalization. Through coincidence and twists of fate on a tea-infused trail that winds through villages of Chinese hill tribes, the drug-infested Golden Triangle, and finally, the glamour and wealth of Los Angeles, the reader will savor this “lush tale infused with clear-eyed compassion.” –The Washington Post
