Climbing Mt. Everest with Bill Burke, the Oldest Person to Make the Ascent

Learn about the challenges, risks and joys of climbing the world’s highest mountains from Bill Burke, the oldest person living outside of Asia to summit Mt. Everest from the North Approach. Among his many other credits, Bill has climbed the highest mountain on every continent and is the only person to accomplish this feat after reaching age 60.

For this program, Bill will discuss his successful climbs of Mt. Everest and present his "Mt. Everest- South Approach and North Approach" documentary film as well as share the techniques he uses to physically and mentally prepare for these expeditions, as well as lessons learned from the mountains.

Art in Context (6-part Lecture Series): Henri Matisse

April 6  Introduction and Matisse in the Early Years
This introduction to the course offers a historical overview of Matisse’s rise to the center of the Avant-garde in the first decade of the 20th Century.

April 13  Matisse in the 1910s
This lecture offers a contextualization of Matisse’s move to the South of France in 1918 in the midst of WWI and the Spanish Flu pandemic Track the development of Matisse’s modernist style throughout this crucial decade.

April 20  Matisse in the 1920s
In this lecture, explore Matisse’s life and work in the relative calm of the 1920s when he moved permanently to the seaside town of Nice. The harem scenes and exotic nudes that he paints were formally experimental, propelled by Matisse’s interest in North African textiles and Islamic design.

April 27  Matisse in the 1930s*
Needing inspiration, Matisse leaves Nice and travels to the US and Tahiti. Explore Matisse’s reception in the US, his exhibitions at MoMA and his relationships with American patrons including Albert Barnes and the Cone sisters of Philadelphia.

May 4  Matisse in the 1940s
In the face of illness and isolation, Matisse turns to paper cutouts, and brush drawing as his only means of expression. Explore his epic illustrated book Jazz and other publications from the era as well as his interior works done at the Villa Reve.

May 11  Matisse in the 1950s
In this lecture, discuss Matisse’s last major project, The Dominican Chapel of the Rosary in Venice.
